2022 Sponsorship Opportunities

Value Proposition Building Black Business

Your support for NEON accelerates the growth of over 1,000 majority Black, low- to moderate-income entrepreneurs launching small businesses, creating family-supporting jobs, delivering services and amenities, and driving economic development in North Minneapolis.

Closing the Racial Wealth Gap

Minority entrepreneurship can increase wealth for Black and Latinx families by 400-600%, making entrepreneurship a powerful lever for closing the racial wealth gap (Bryson, Crosby, & Seo 2020; Fairlie & Robb 2008).

Investing in a Vibrant Northside

Supporting NEON aligns with our work powering a community-led revitalization of Minneapolis' historically Black Northside neighborhood. Your sponsorship amplifies our ability to transform North Minneapolis into an inclusive, economically thriving, and culturally vibrant destination.

NEON

The Northside Economic Opportunity Network (NEON) launched in 2006 to support North Minneapolis' underserved, ethnically diverse entrepreneurs. We have since evolved to meet the dynamic needs of our community through individualized business development and assessment services, training programs, and workshops. Each year, NEON provides more than 1,000 aspiring entrepreneurs and small business owners—80% of whom are Black and 100% of whom are low- to moderate-income—with the tools, resources, and access to capital and expertise needed to plan, launch, and grow thriving businesses in North Minneapolis. The community impact of NEON's services and investments is multigenerational. A keystone review published by MIT Press finds having an entrepreneur in the family increases wealth for Black and Latinx families by 400-600%, making entrepreneurship a powerful lever for closing the racial wealth gap.

By investing in BIPOC entrepreneurs and business owners, NEON is building sustainable businesses and family-supporting jobs and ensuring culturally representative services and amenities in Northside neighborhoods. As our community moves forward from a year of challenges and community healing, NEON has a critical role to play ensuring development in North Minneapolis is driven by Northsiders, for Northsiders.

2022 Event Series

NEON's "Community Conversation Version 3.0" is the third annual Community Conversation series which originated in 2020. Engaging nearly 1,000 community members through in-person and virtual viewership in the first two years, we expect to draw increased attention to and elevate our profile through the next Community Conversation Series, Version 3.0. Designed to spark strategic dialogue, the conversation series brings together BIPOC-owned business and entrepreneurs, NEON leadership, and national guests to address social and racial injustice, economic opportunity, and community support of NEON initiatives.

We are planning for dynamic speakers in 3 to 4 sessions taking place in the afternoon, with networking receptions to follow. Thanks to excellent survey response and feedback we'll plan to feature our own local entrepreneurs, corporate executives and BIPOC-owned business owners with connections to food, sports and housing-among other business interests.

The 2022 3.0 series will bring top donors and community partners together to support and learn more about NEON's work with the Grow & Thrive campaign.

Highlights from Community Conversation 2.0

Our most well attended conversation was our final installment, which featured very successful minority entrepreneurs, alongside Warren McLean and the venerable Daymond John:

- Anissa Keyes, NEON Entrepreneur and Founder & President of Arubah
- Justin Sutherland, Celebrity Chef, owns and operates Handsome Hog, and the culinary director of Noyes & Cutler in Saint Paul
